Transportation in the City

From Rumeli Hisarüstü, which is adjacent to Boğaziçi South Campus (up the hill), virtually all buses go to Taksim, Beşiktaş, Şişli, Kabataş and Kadıköy (on the Asian side of the Bosphorus). Along the coastal road (down the hill from Boğaziçi South Campus), the lines go towards south to Beşiktaş, Kabataş (with connections to Eminönü and Sultanahmet), and Taksim; and towards north all the way to Sarıyer.

Boat: Ferry boats and fast catamarans operate between the two shores of İstanbul – Europe and Asia. The nearest boat dock to Boğaziçi University is in Bebek. The major boat landings on the European side of the city are Beşiktaş, Kabataş, Karaköy, Eminönü; and they are at Üsküdar, Kadıköy and Bostancı on the Asian side. Boat fares are about 1 USD (0.80 Euro).

Metro: Underground metro system is available between Taksim Square and Maslak. An alternative to get to Boğaziçi University (conference venue) from Taksim is by taking the metro to “Levent” or “4. Levent” stations and then taking a taxi from there to Boğaziçi Campus (a short ride).
