

Volume 28, Issue 47Conference Announcement*PET '02

Location : Paris 1 (Pantheon-Sorbonne)

Organizers : Association for Public Economic Theory

Major Topics : Public economics

Conference Dates : 7/3/2002 to 7/3/2002

Submission Deadline : 3/1/2002

Send Submissions To : E-mail submissions are preferred. An e-mail address to send submissions will be posted in the second announcement of PET '02. Watch EB for updates.

Sponsoring Organizations :

For further information contact : Myrna Wooders, University of Warwick, M.Wooders@warwick.ac.uk

Web Page :

PET '02, First Announcement. The Third International Conference on Public Economics of the Association for Public Economic Theory (APET), will be held in Paris (Paris 1, Pantheon-Sorbonne) on July 3-6, 2002. The Programme Committee consists of: Bernard Cornet (Université de Paris 1), Chair. Co-chairs: Hubert Kempf (Université de Paris 1), Cuong Le Van (CNRS, Université de Paris 1), Myrna Wooders (Université de Warwick) Themes of the conference include: Taxation, externalities and public goods. Environment. Theory of games and public economics. New technologies, development, and political economics Cooperation, group formation and communication Decision theory and public economics International cooperation and globalization. Public finance. Financial policies and the banking system (As previous APET conferences, to give researchers with interest in public economics but no current paper in the area the opportunity to participate, submissions in other areas of economics will also be considered.) Current information, including the Programme Committee and a partial list of plenary speakers appears at <http://www.warwick.ac.uk/fac/soc/Economics/wooders/PET2002.html> Announcements of s will appear periodically at the above address and at www.economicsbulletin.com