

Volume 30, Issue 1Research Announcement*Infant mortality situation in bangladesh in 2007: a district level analysis

Mazbahul Golam Ahamad
Centre for Policy Dialogue

Abstract

This paper examines the trend and annual rate of reduction from 1998-2007 and correlates causal factors based on different data from Statistical Yearbook of Bangladesh 2008 and Sample Vital Registration System 2007. Seven explanatory variables are considered and log-log specified ordinary least square and simultaneous quantile regression models are employed to investigate and compare the stochastic impacts of these predictors on changing infant mortality.

Published as a working paper in http://mpa.ub.uni-muenchen.de/20531/1/MPRA_paper_20531.pdf

Paper is available at URL: mg.ahamad@gmail.com

Mazbahul Golam Ahamad
Centre for Policy Dialogue
mg.ahamad@gmail.com
House:40/C, Road: 11
Dhaka, 1209, Bangladesh
+8801717258612(Phone)
(+880 2) 8130951(Fax)

Citation: Mazbahul Golam Ahamad, (2010) "Infant mortality situation in bangladesh in 2007: a district level analysis", Economics Bulletin, Vol. 30 no.1 p.A5.

Submitted: February 15, 2010 Published: February 16, 2010.

URL: <http://www.accessecon.com/pubs/EB/2010/Volume30/EB-10-V30-I1-A5.pdf>