This international workshop, entirely organized by EBIM doctoral students, aims to provide Ph.D. students in theoretical economics with an opportunity to talk about new developments in their field and discuss their work in progress with other doctoral students. During the workshop, participants will give a presentation of their research followed by a discussion. Papers from many research areas related to Economic Theory are invited. Please submit a full research paper or an extended abstract. We welcome applications from Ph.D. students at any stage of their doctoral studies. The workshop is generously sponsored by EBIM. Accommodation and travel expenses of the presenters will usually be covered. There is no participation fee.
