The Spring 2002 NBER Conference on General Equilibrium Theory will be held May 10-12, 2002, at the University of Minnesota. The Conference is sponsored by the National Bureau of Economic Research and the University of Minnesota. Sessions will begin on Friday afternoon, May 10th, and continue through Sunday morning, May 12th. The Conference will be held on the campus of the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis. The Program Committee - Beth Allen, Erzo Luttmmer, Aldo Rustichini and Jan Werner (chair) - welcomes papers in mainstream General Equilibrium Theory, as well as in applications of general equilibrium modeling to other areas such as finance, public economics, macroeconomics, industrial organization, monetary economics, etc. write to invite you to participate in the Conference and consider submitting a paper for presentation. If you are interested in submitting a paper, please send a copy of the complete paper to Jan Werner (address below) or, preferably, send a PDF file via email to Caty Bach at bach@atlas.socsci.umn.edu, or Jan Werner at jwerner@atlas.socsci.umn.edu. Submissions must be received by April 5, 2002. The program will be announced shortly thereafter. We expect to be able to provide at least partial funding for travel and hotel expenses of speakers. Please pass news of this conference on to other potentially interested parties. We welcome recommendations of papers to consider, especially from younger scholars. All organizational details including accommodation and travel information will be posted on a website within the next few days. I apologize for such short notice on the Conference, and I hope to hear from you very soon. Please keep in mind that May is a great time to visit Minnesota. Yours, Jan Werner jwerner@atlas.socsci.umn.edu Department of Economics, Tel. (612) 625 0708 University of Minnesota, Fax.
