The Fall 2002 Midwest International Economics and Economic Theory Meetings will be held October 18-20, 2002 at the University of Notre Dame. Sessions will begin on the afternoon of Friday, October 18 and will continue through Sunday morning October 20. All sessions will be held in the Mendoza College of Business. All participants are kindly asked to complete the electronic registration form. The deadline for paper or abstract submissions is Friday, August 30, 2002. Electronic submissions are preferred. You can use the paper submission page to submit a paper to either set of meetings. Hotel rooms have been reserved at the Morris Inn (on campus) and at the Inn at St. Mary's (approximately 1.5 miles from campus). Reservations for these hotels must be made through the Center for Continuing Education before September 18. Room reservations will not be accepted by the hotels after September 18. Our hotel registration page can help facilitate the registration process. The meetings are sponsored by the Department of Economics and the College of Arts and Letters, the Department of Finance and Business Economics and the Mendoza College of Business, the Kellogg Institute for International Studies, and the Center for Applied Math. Local organizers are Rich Jensen and Tom Gresik. Please feel free to contact either of us with any questions.
