The 2004 Annual Meeting of the Society for Economic Research on Copyright Issues (SERCI) is scheduled to be held in Turin (Italy) on July 8-9 of 2004. The local organisers are Giovanni Ramello and Francesco Silva. The Guest Speaker at the congress will be Prof. Paul David (Oxford University). Submissions are invited on any topic (both theoretical and empirical) that uses economic theory to analyse any aspect of copyright management (optimal copyright law and alternatives, causes and effects of copyright infringement, efficient management of information goods in general, digital rights management, economic foundations of copyright, economic analysis of copyright collectives, etc.). Detailed abstracts of submissions should be sent as an e-mail attachment to richard.watt@uam.es before 1st of March 2004. A selection of the papers from the congress will be published internationally. More information is available on <http://www.serci.org>.
