CONFERENCE ANNOUNCEMENT International Conference of Trends, Impacts and Policies on Tourism Development Amoudara, Heraklion, Crete, GREECE 15-18 June 2006 Conference Aim Most destinations worldwide have been, and continue to be, subject to tremendous visitor pressures with both positive and negative consequences. Therefore, much debate has been raised on whether tourism is beneficial for tourism destinations or whether tourism is the seeds of destinations destruction. However, there is still discussion on philosophical stances and on which are the appropriate policies and management techniques to ameliorate tourism problems and maximize positive results, as well as on the significant role played by the local government in the development of tourism. Bearing all these in mind, the conference aims to add to this debate by stimulating discussion and exchange of ideas between tourism professionals, academics, researchers, policy-makers, consultants, practitioners, government officials and postgraduate students from all tourism-related fields. Conference Topics The topics of the conference include but not limited to the following: • Tourism Development • Tourism Planning and Policy-Making • Public Administration of Tourism Development • Local Government Role and Responses to Tourism Development • Community Responses to Tourists and Tourism • Economic/Social/Environmental/Cultural Impact of Tourism • Tourism, Terrorism, Safety and Security • European Union Policies in Tourism • Tourism Education and its Role in Managing Tourism Development • Sustainable Tourism • Alternative and Special Forms of Tourism • Island/Mountain/Mass/Urban/Rural Tourism • Industry”s Role in Managing Growth • Destination Marketing • Transportation and Tourism • Tourism Research and Methodology • Information Technology in Tourism • Globalisation and Tourism • Future of Tourism Abstract Submission Guidelines Official language of the conference is English. An abstract between 250-300 words should be submitted by 31st January. The abstract should be written in English and include title, name(s) of author(s), affiliations, postal and e-mail addresses.
