

Curriculum Vita

Eman Mohamed Shrief Mohamed Taher Elish
Lecturer
Economics Department
Faculty of Business Administration, Economics and political science.
The British University in Egypt

147, 5th Settlement, 1st district, New Cairo, Egypt.

Tel: (+ 202) / 0115050189 / 26175418.

eman.elish@bue.edu.eg

eman_elish@hotmail.com

Education

2008 A PhD. In Economics.

Title: "Toward a Model for Measuring External Debt Sustainability, A Comparative Study between Egypt and some developing Countries".

Ain Shams University, Economics Department.

2002 Master Degree in Economics (National Accounts).

Title: "Boundaries Measurement, and Assessment of Production in National Accounts".

Ain Shams University, Economics Department.

1997 Bachelor Degree in Accounting, Very Good with Honours (GPA 3.4).

Faculty of Commerce (English Section), Ain Shams University.

1993 Thanawya Amma

St. Fatima School (Science department).

Professional skills and certificates

The British University of Egypt Feb.2010-Feb.2012:

- British Education: Module Delivery
- British Education: Module Specs & Design

- Designing Assessments
- British Education: Marking Assessments, Double Marking/Moderation.
- Student Feedback
- Do's and Don'ts for Module Leaders
- Do's and Don'ts for TAs
- Module filing & Module Outline
- e-learning
- Personal Tutoring (students advising)
- Peer Review and Personal Development Plan
- Research induction
- Academic honesty
- HR induction
- Library induction
- Team leadership, university linkage workshop II, January 6th, 2014-Cairo. Sponsored by Institute of national Education, and the British University in Egypt.
- Research Methods workshop in Switzerland from 9-14 March 2015, in Direct Investment Advisory services firm.

	Year	Grade
TOEFL	2000	600
GRE	2001	4110

Computer skills:

- Good Knowledge of windows XP Active directory administrated.
- Good Knowledge of Excel – power point – word –Access.
- Good Knowledge of ,STATA, SPSS and Eviews.

Language Skills:

- English, “Fluent at reading, writing, and speaking.”
- French, “Good at reading, writing and speaking”.

Research Interests

- Macroeconomic policies.
- Budget deficit and public debt sustainability.
- Inflation and Unemployment.
- Financial development.
- Uncertainty and policy.
- Financial sector reform.
- Foreign Direct Investment and economic growth.

Employment Experience

Research experience:

September 1998-January 2010: Institute of National Planning:

- Research Assistant
- Researcher
- Research Expert.

I worked as a Research expert at the Institute of National planning for the past twelve years .I had the chance of gaining both teaching and Research Experience.

As for the Research Experience, I was a member of several research teams in the field of Economics. These researches were published and Evaluated by several scientific committees, inside and outside the Institute of National planning. In addition to my effort in assisting in the writing and the publication of the Human Development report on Egypt annual report.

As for the Teaching Experience, I taught as an Assistant lecturer in the "Economic Planning Diploma" (A post Graduate Diploma For two years in the INP). I taught Macro Economics, Micro Economics, and National Accounting and Feasibility study.

Training Experience:

I delivered training sessions in the following courses at the Institute of National Planning:

- Total Quality Management in Aviation and International Airports. March 2009
- Economic Feasibility Study and Project Evaluation. May 2009

Teaching experience:

Fall 2003 Part time Assistant Lecturer at the, New Cairo Academy:

- Macroeconomics
- Microeconomics.
- International Economics.

Fall 2004 –spring 2007 Part time Assistant lecturer (Module Leader) University of Modern Sciences and Arts (MSA):

- Financial Accounting.
- Macroeconomics
- Microeconomics.
- Intermediate Macroeconomics.
- Public finance

Semester 1 2008/2009 - Semester 2, 2009 British University in Egypt .Part time Lecturer (Module Leader):

- Comparative Economic Systems
- Public Finance.
- Population Economics
- Economic History of Europe

Spring 2009-Fall 2010 Future University in Egypt. Part time Lecturer (Module Leader):

- Stock Markets
- Principles of Economics
- Public finance
- Managerial economics

Recent working experience At the BUE Full Time lecturer (Module Leader) (Feb.2010):

- Economic History of the Middle East.
- Intermediate macroeconomics A.
- Managerial economics.
- Public finance.
- Intermediate Macroeconomics.
- Macroeconomics A.
- Macroeconomic policy analysis.

Other academic responsibilities:

- Personal tutoring.
- Supervising students Honours dissertation.

Administrative responsibilities:

- Programme director in the Economics Department, The British University in Egypt.

Other experiences:

1997-1998 Al Ahram Economics weekly Periodical:

Training and working under supervision of Dr. Essam Refaat former Chief Editor. A part of my training focused on field surveys and attending several economic conferences as a representative of the journal then summarize the conference results and outcomes.

Publications:

- Elish,E (2018), An Examination of the Empirical Validity of the Thirlwall 'Law': The Case of Egypt, International Journal of Business and Economics Research,7(6),pp 203-211.
- Elish,E and Hammam R.(2018) Dynamic interaction between macroeconomic imbalances: The case of Egypt, International Journal of Business and Economics Perspectives,13(1), PP53-69
- Elish, E and Miniesy, R. (2017). Is Chinese outward FDI in MENA little? Journal of Chinese Economics and Foreign Trade Studies, 10(1) pp19-43
- Elish E. and ElShamy H.,(2016).Absorptive capacity of human capital and international R&D spill-over on labour productivity in Egypt, in Allam,A.(Ed.). Managing Knowledge and Innovation for Business Sustainability in Africa, 2nd ed., Palgrave Macmillan, December 2016. ISBN978-3-319-41090-6
- Elish,E. & ElShamy,H.(2016). The Impact of vocational and technical education on economic growth: a panel study of MENA Countries. International Journal of Business and Economics Perspectives, 11(1), pp1-15, Spring 2016
- Elish, E. & Miniesy, R. (2016). Is MENA different? An Investigation of the host country determinants of Chinese outward foreign direct investment. Towards a New Development Agenda for the Middle East, ERF, 22nd Annual Conference, March 19-21, Egypt.
- Elish,E. & ElShamy,H.(2016). The impact of vocational and technical education on economic growth: a panel study of MENA countries. First International Conference, Business in a Dynamic World, January 15-17, Cyprus.
- Elish E.(2015). Investigating the impact of the potential zakah collection as a source for funding economic growth in Muslim countries.21st International Research Conference on Business, Economics and Social Sciences, December 29-30,UAE
- Elish E.& ElShamy H. (2014). Absorptive capacity of human capital and international R&D spillover on labour productivity in Egypt. International Journal of Innovation and Knowledge Management in MENA 3(3/4) PP 285-296.
- Elish, E.(2008). Toward a model measuring external debt sustainability a comparative study between Egypt and several developing countries. s.l.:Ain Shams University.
- Elish, E.(2002). Boundries measurement and assessment of production in national accounts. s.l.:Ain Shams University.